Chariton Courier The Great Favorite Weekly. The only paper circulating in every part of the county.

The American soldier did not nor does not now like the English soldier, nor does the English soldier have much love or even respect for the American doughboy. American soldiers like the Canadian and French fellow men in arms and get along fine together, but that the American and English soldier detests each other, is a fixed fact by the testimony of each. The dislike more than likely arose on the part of Tommies as a result of jealousy of our doughboys whose dashing fighting and readiness to mix it with foes at any time or place and to a finish, challenged their style. The arrogance of the English has nothing on the independence of the American and is quite apparent that the mixing of thousands of our boys with Tommies has not tended to lighten the doughboys opinion of the Tommies but on the contrary, appears to have augmented mutual antipathies. American soldiers who were over there have a right to boast of their performances and of American accomplishments heretofore, if they wish to do so with due regard to the proprieties.

IF YOUR CHILD IS CROSS, FEVERISH, CONSTIPATED

Look, Mother! If tongue is coated, cleanse little bowels with "California Syrup of Figs."

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children, of all ages and for grown-ups.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try it! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a small bottle of Danderine.

If you care for heavy hair that glitters with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store and just try it.
